The MiG-29 "Fulcrum" is a Russian-designed, twin-engine, supersonic fighter. First operational in the early 1980s, the Fulcrum is a "light weight" fighter, comparable to the American F/A-18 Hornet and F-16. Designed to work in conjunction with the larger Su-27 Flanker, the MiG-29 is armed with an internal 30mm cannon and both infrared and radar guided air-to-air missiles. For air-to-ground tasks, the MiG-29 can be armed with a large array of unguided bombs and rockets.

In addition to a sophisticated pulse doppler radar, the MiG-29 is also equipped with a passive Infrared Search and Track (IRST) sensor that allows the Fulcrum to detect and target enemy aircraft just based on target infrared emissions. This allows the MiG-29 to make stealthy attacks with no warning!

The Fulcrum is a highly-maneuverable fighter in a dogfight, and when paired with the helmet mounted sight and the AA-11 "Archer" air-to-air missile, it is a very lethal adversary.

The MiG-29 has also been widely exported and has served in many countries that include Germany, Iran, Ukraine, and Poland.

Nice scifi adventure game. Sometimes challenging and a bit weird but much to do. Lots of variety and even after play new things are found like strange vr-world and other planets to walk. Not perfect but Good grafik on most level and sound & music...

Really nice made game! If you liked Space Quest 1-4, EGA Versions, this is your game.. quote;"Please attack this robots!" "Her friends are locked in school building." Real quotes from the game.

10/10. This is my new favorite tool for prepping and running dungeon crawls. Can't recommend highly enough.. If you're stuck inside for an afternoon, this is a fairly satisfying waste of time. The "plot" can probably be summed up in a sentence, but this is basically an elevated flash puzzle game that makes you feel clever for managing to figure things out. If you open it up and don't understand anything up at first, don't look up a walkthrough. The entire fun of the game is figuring out how to actually play it, and once you're done with that all it is is a pretty color generator.. This is a great starting point into getting into the 8 bit RTS series.. Most enjoyable adventure series it is a great and fun game i would recommend it if you are bored and need to waste time. the only problem is that there is no cloud for some things. like i had a really good weapon in storage for next round and i go to play the game on another computer and the item isnt there for next round. Well, as I don't have a VR headset, it was just a short little trip down memory lane. Looked like a demo I would've seen quite some years back. I don't see WHY it needs a high end graphic card. Sorry...boring. Fun, Quick-burst platformer that contains some great music, quirky and charming characters and a pretty smooth difficulty curve. Money well spent!. took me twice as long as first game also comes with neat but very limitable level editor :). A very well done time management game. Most levels are pretty easy to beat at the highest level your first and certainly your second try, but there are a few difficult levels in here. Everything looks good, runs well, and if you like time management games, you'll definitely get your money's worth here.. Dont buy it.. Simply breathtaking, it really makes you FEEL like a Russian Gangsta In HELL. once you realise you are invincible you get an rpg and blow a massive hole at the end of the level and play the game until the enemies take minutes to defeat so you get bored and never play this game again.

Kinda fun while it lasted I guess but definitely not worth $3. not worth the money
